

Cynthia Pladziewicz, J.D., Ph.D., PCC (StrengthsFinder Workshop). Cindy, a strengths-focused certified coach, is an expert on the professional development of attorneys and other high performers. As a former Partner at AmLaw 200 firm Thompson & Knight, Cindy is experienced in the day-to-day challenges and long-term demands attorneys face. She left the legal profession for a decade of private practice as a clinical psychologist at Baylor University Medical Center before returning to Thompson & Knight as Chief Development Officer. She has also taught and developed courses in law and psychology as an Adjunct Professor at Southern Methodist University.

Cindy coaches and consults with attorneys, law firm leaders, corporate executives, entrepreneurs and other professionals who seek to take their career to the next level of excellence. Her background, including a BBA degree in Accounting and service on the Board of Directors of a publicly-traded company, informs her business-savvy approach to situational awareness and client focus. Through relationships built on a high level of trust and attentiveness, Cindy takes professionals from good to great.
