

Deborah Williamson, J.D. (People Management & Time Management). Deborah Williamson has practiced insolvency and restructuring law for over 30 years. Deborah is regularly called on by clients in a variety of industries for her bankruptcy experience and advice regarding counter-party risk. She currently serves as one of the 19 members of the American Bankruptcy Institute's (ABI) Bankruptcy Reform Commission. In 2011, she was awarded the ABI's Lifetime Achievement Award, which has been presented only twice in the ABI's nearly 30-year history. Based in San Antonio, she travels frequently around Texas, the United States, and the world to address colleagues and counsel clients on bankruptcy issues and trends.

In 2016, Deborah authored the second edition of When Gushers Go Dry, The Essentials of Oil & Gas Bankruptcy to address new realities in the oil fields, the first guide to oil and gas bankruptcy. She had previously co-authored Bankruptcy Litigation for the Commercial Litigator. Ms. Williamson has been named a leader in her field by Chambers USA since 2003, selected for inclusion by Texas Super Lawyers as one of the Top 100 Lawyers in Texas (regardless of practice) and as one of the Top 50 Women Lawyers in Texas and one of the Top 50 Lawyers in Central Texas since the honor's inception. Named one of The Best Lawyers in America® consecutively for over two decades, Deborah was recently included for the second time in Texas Lawyer's Go-To Guide as one of the top five bankruptcy attorneys in the state of Texas, which is compiled by the magazine's editorial department and published only every five years. She has served as Co-Chair of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Litigation Committee of the Litigation Section of the American Bar Association. Prior to the May 1, 2015 combination, Deborah served as Managing Director of Cox Smith and was responsible for guiding and shaping the firm's business and client service strategies. She is currently a member of Dykema's Executive Board.
