

The National Association of Women Judges presents:

Color of Justice Program

Encouraging Diversity in the Bar and Judiciary

Wednesday, April 27, 2016

Texas A&M University San Antonio
Main Campus, Central Academic Building
Room 402 (Vista Room)

Panel of Judges, Lawyers and Law Students Discussion of Education and Career Prep. Presenters include State and Federal Judges, Law School Faculty, Attorneys and Students sharing personal and professional experiences in pursuit of a legal career.

Law as a Career:
Preparing the Way
From 10:00 am – 11:15 am

The Color of Justice:
Making a Difference
[Judges Panel & Lunch]
From 11:30 PM – 1:30 PM

Getting Real with the Bench & Bar
From 1:45 am – 3:00 pm

Registration and box lunch is FREE!
Space is limited, so register today!

For more information, contact [TAMUSA point of contact] or Justice Rebeca Martinez, NAWJ Director rebeca.martinez@txcourts.gov, 210-335-2693.

With additional support from:

