SPEAKER BIO

Name: Ofelia Delgado

Firm: Founding Attorney, Delgado Law Firm, PLLC

Ofelia Delgado is the founding attorney at Delgado Law Firm, PLLC, where she focuses on immigration and personal injury law. Previously she was a Senior Staff Attorney in the Children's Program at RAICES (Refugee and Immigrant Center for Education and Legal Services) where she represented undocumented children in both civil and immigration court.

Prior to becoming a lawyer, she worked at non-profits, as well as directed programs in San Antonio, Texas dedicated to serving disenfranchised populations to include undocumented immigrants, survivors of abuse, and at-risk children and youth.

Ms. Delgado earned her B.A. from UW-Madison where she double majored in Sociology and Behavioral Science & Law. Her M.A. is in Sociology from the University of California Santa Barbara. She went on to receive her J.D. from Loyola University New Orleans College of Law in 2012. Ms. Delgado is a proud San Antonio native and a daughter of an immigrant mother.
